

HELLBOUND?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What moments in the film stood out to you? What surprised you? What made you laugh? Did anything make you angry? Why?
2. What was your view of hell prior to watching this film? Where did those beliefs come from?
3. How did watching this film impact your beliefs about hell?
4. What do you think about the history of hell presented in this film?
5. How well does the film handle the biblical case for/against certain views of hell?
6. What do you think about the connection the film makes between hell and violence?
7. What's the connection between God's character and how we view hell?
8. Why do you think hell is such a contentious issue within Christianity? How can so many intelligent, highly educated, well-meaning Christians come to such radically different conclusions on this topic?
9. How can we work toward more constructive dialogue on controversial issues like hell?
10. What's the primary thing you will take away from watching this film?